Think about what you learned about today in class. Why is the skin important? What functions does it serve? Our skin is located on the outside of our body, but is it considered an organ? What layer is made mostly of fat? In what layer would you find blood vessels, sweat glands, and nerve endings? What layer is visible? What happens to our old skin cells?